Rally & Globe
VINTAGE AND CLASSIC CAR CLUB

13 to 19 SEPTEMBER 2026

13 to 19 September 2026

Exclusively for pre-war cars, 6 days, average of 250km per day

Sun, open roads and a vintage car - who could ask for more! Join us for our first pre-war only event on mainland Europe.

The carnation or “El Clavel” is a national symbol of Spain and, much like the Shamrock in Ireland, represents the passion and pride that the Spanish people have for their country - the same passion and pride that drivers on vintage rallies have for their cars. Rally the Globe relish the opportunity to transplant the fun and games of the much-loved Vintage Shamrock to Northern Spain - easily accessible by ferry from the UK and Ireland, and by road from the rest of Europe.

Get ready for top-down motoring and some truly vintage competition.

We hope you can join us!

Sunday 13 September 2026:
Scrutineering & Signing-on (afternoon)

Monday 14 September 2026:
Rally Start

Saturday 19 September:
Rally Finish & Prizegiving Dinner

Event details

- 6 days with scrutineering and signing-on during the afternoon before the start
- Average of 250km per day and no night time driving

Regularities

- Average of 3 per day
- The vast majority will be on asphalt, but there will be some short sections of gravel/dirt/unmade road
- Variety of simple navigation techniques with a smattering of map reading required later in the event
- All speed tables will be provided

Tests

- Generally 1 or 2 tests per day
- Ranging from gravel car parks to modern kart tracks

Hospitality

- Good standard of hotels (approximately 4-star equivalent) including some characterful and historic buildings
- One or two hotels where we will stay for multiple nights
- One early afternoon finish without a group meal to give some down-time and individual exploration
- Lunches on all full days and 1 or 2 refreshment stops each day to get you out of the car and mingling with other crews
- Van to transport luggage between hotels (sensible weight restrictions apply)
